Success is something that all people who also want to achieve it. Only two brief letters to be done alone but it is a process of unceasing labor for a long time, sometimes as a lifetime. Every successful person goes to have received a price not less from the bitter setbacks, and problems to achieve success, the will and choice of each path is the deciding factor. Police operations in more than 10 years, but the difficulties and worries for his family did not work safely. He decided to withdraw from the sector of economic activities to better care for their families. Fond mechanical work before, so he chose engineering as a livelihood. But only with a single lathe, he did not have enough income to cover family life, so this time outside of work means he must also do more of what may, someone asked what to do this, there when doing maintenance mechanics, electrical, mold ... Some time later, in the hope of changing his life, he and a friend to collaborate on the production casing acoustic speakers, amplifiers ... but that work fast bankrupt because no other outlet as well as the quality of the product is not quality. So how difficult was stretched out in front, with a person you do withdraw from the anhung this business. How to keep the pressure weighing on his shoulders, the pressure due to family responsibilities, which gradually spreads especially pressing for the capital of his office. But who was there will, honesty is much loved, he was family and other close friends to help solve the problems. This time, he was back to his steep a new energy, he determined to try to do something there to have life in it, so he continued to pursue his work. I think to make a product that no one has to do to avoid competition and realize creative ideas in their work. See the field as a template nice and fresh, so he decided to invest in manufacturing these devices. His first product was supap motorcycles. With the lessons learned from previous failures, he worked more cautious, more careful study of their products. So how many days of hard study and learn he has produced quality products, reasonable prices should have been accepted on the market quickly. The initial success made him more excited, work and gradually become stable and progressing well, he decided to expand the production scale of minh.Tuy who likes to study and manufacture more products business is to solve the problem but the output he learned more about management - business. With a specific plan, constantly improving quality, product diversification, through the years of ups and downs, in 2003 he completed Co. building their own company; Companies mold Success at Le Minh Xuan Commune - Binh Chanh.

Currently the company Success specialized focus on pressure casting aluminum product categories, Atimol, design and manufacturing of molds. With practical ideas, always searching out new products, Success has created a new product that no one makes, the higher quality molds by pressure casting technology luc.Ngoai the production of goods sold at the Tan Thanh, Thanh Cong mainly focused on product molds orders from all over the country and abroad. With the motto placed on top quality, accurate implementation required to order products, significant credibility, he has been researching Co., learn to create the best products and fresh from a who suffer deprivation and difficulties in life and at work, so far he Co. has created a company, handling more than 50 jobs for workers, a stable family life and create for social good products, to him it really is the greatest happiness. And when asked about the secret of the success he humbly said, get your today thanks to the significant support of the family, especially the wife. Like the other mechanic I work really passionate, creative and always loved to acquire, cultivate new technologies, and important that I have dared to do things that other people do not.
